

Nicholas Gorissen

Software Analyst

bignic@thebignic.com

@tehbignic | (705) 427-9366

WORK EXPERIENCE

2013 – Present    Lead Developer / Owner    Dolphin Barn
Programming, art direction, music direction, animation, marketing, QA for PC/iOS games.

Sept 2004 – Dec 2015    Software Analyst    Waypoint Centre for Mental Health Care
Develop/consult on several province-wide, mission critical applications for the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care including the Ontario Forensic Mental Health Bed Registry. Software development, policy and procedure documentation, project lifecycle management and documentation, developing User Acceptance Testing criteria, and supervising job competitions. Enterprise level web application development and database administration. In-house reporting applications, database reverse-engineering, and interface development/maintenance.

EDUCATION

2000-2002    Algonquin College
Computer Systems Technician program - specialization in Web Technology.

PORTFOLIO

Game Development: <http://www.dolphinbarn.com>
Song-writing: <http://bignic.bandcamp.com>
Personal Website: <http://www.thebignic.com>

SKILLS / CERTIFICATIONS / BUZZWORD SECTION

ITIL v3 Certified. C++, C#, VB.NET, PHP, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, Javascript. SQL Server, MySQL, Progress, SQLite. Allegro, OpenGL. HL7, Mirth.

NOTABLE AWARDS/RECOGNITION

Recipient of Four Continuous Quality Improvement Awards - Ministry of Health and Long Term Care
2008 International Songwriting Contest – Third Place Electronic Song 'The End of Something Big'
2008 John Lennon Songwriting Contest (Session I) – Best Electronic Song – 'Phone'
2007 Ontario Independent Music Awards – Best Electronic Song – 'Inexplicable'